GEN. PERSHING SENDS TIDINGS

Expresses His Appreciation for Christmas Greetings From Home Country.

With the American Army in France, Jan. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)— On behalf of the American expeditionary force Gen. Pershing has answered New Year's messages from the United States. A message to the army from the Children's American Loyalty league read:

"Dear American Soldiers—We know the sacrifice you have made for us and will make that we may be safe and happy. We thank you and wish you all a happy new year."

Gen. Pershing responded as follows: "The American soldiers in France are very glad to have your message.
No sacrifice we can make will be too great if we can insure the safety and happiness of the children of America."

From Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, suffrage leader and member of the Woman's Council of National Defense, came this greeting:

"The women of the United States are with you in the spirit of service.
You are our standard bearers, our hope. We love you, believe in you, pray for you."
Gen. Pershing replied:
"All ranks of the American expeditionary force unite in heartfelt thanks to the women of America for their love and prayers. The patriotism of our incomparable women, than whom there are none others more noble, shall be our constant inspiration until the great task which is intrusted to us shall be accomplished. Accept our best wishes for the coming year and our firm confidence in final success." To Christmas messages from the women of the American Red Cross the American commander sent the thanks of all ranks, adding:

"The love and confidence of our women will make us all better men and better soldiers and hold us firm in the courage and determination to win."

HUNTING FOR MEANEST BOY IN UNITED STATES

Boys' Brotherhood of Chicago Promises to Convert Him Into Good Boy.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—The meanest boy in the United States is sought by the Chicago Boys' Brotherhood republic to be used in an experiment to prove that bad boys are the products of society and environmental influence.
A committee of the organization plans to leave here February 1 on a tour of twelve of the largest cities in search of the 100 per cent. bad boy who will be brought to Chicago to live with members of the organization.
"In six months we'll turn him into a 100 per cent. good boy," said one member in explaining the plan.
Resolutions adopted last night authorizing the plan describe the boy sought as follows:
"He must be the meanest, the toughest, the most no-account, the most dishonest, the most evil, vicious, wicked in fact, the worst boy morally that a human being can be."

SOLID TRAINS OF COAL RUSHED THROUGH OHIO

Columbus, O., Jan. 4.—For the first time in history, solid trains of coal were being rushed through the Union passenger station with right of way over all other service today. The coal is from Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia fields and consigned to the east.

CAMP GREENE TO BE ENLARGED

Washington, Jan. 4.—Camp Greene, at Charlotte, N. C., now being used as an assembly camp for regular army troops, is to be enlarged to accommodate another brigade of about 7,000 men at a cost of about $200,000. Bar-acks and other buildings for the additional men are to be constructed at once.

LOOKS LIKE SHOES WILL ADVANCE

New York, Jan. 4.—Leather is increasing in cost and shoes in 1918 will cost more than last year, members of the National Shoe Travelers' association, in annual convention here, declared today. The shoe salesmen also discussed the increase in cost of traveling and proposed this slogan for the patriotic: "Have your old shoes halfsoled and buy war savings stamps." Shoe styles for the current year will be touched upon at the convention of the retail merchants in Chicago next week, the salesmen refusing to discuss rumors that women's shoes would have bonhoms as a war measure and a military touch to footwear.

AMERICANS REPORTED TO BE REDS' CAPTIVES

Reports from Russia say that the Reds have arrested John F. Stevens, former chief engineer of the Panama canal, and other members of the Stevens railroad commission, sent by America to help Russia straighten out her railway tangles.

Above are: Stevens; W. L. Darling, chief engineer of the Northern Pacific; Henry Miller, former operating vice-president of the Wabash; George Gibbs, former chief mechanical engineer of the Pennsylvania; and J. P. Grenier, chief consulting engineer of the B. & O. This picture of the commissioners was taken when they were en route to Russia.

FALL KAISERISM AIDED BY LENINE

Bolshevik Ambassador to Great Britain Denies Movement in Russia Is Pro-German.

London, Jan. 4.—Maxim Litvinoff, who has been appointed bolshevik ambassador to Great Britain and who said yesterday that the probably would return to Petrograd, has decided to remain in London pending the receipt of his instructions. His photograph is printed prominently in the newspapers. He is described as being broad-minded and it is said that he is attached to English institutions and England, where he has lived for a decade.

M. Litvinoff is an old friend and associate of Lenin. He is declared to be a whole-hearted supporter of the bolsheviks, with whom he apparently is in close touch. The Daily Mail quotes him as saying that until a courier brings him his formal appointment he cannot say whether he will accept the ambassadorship, but in a long interview in the Daily Chronicle he speaks as if he is resolved to take it.
"My task as ambassador," he says in the interview, "will be to disseminate the truth about Russia and to disseminate misunderstanding and misinterpretation of the motives, character and purpose of the workmen and soldiers' government. It is grossly mischievous to represent the bolshev-ist as pro-German, anti-ally or as mere pacifists. They realize as clearly as any one that kaiserism and junkerdom are the greatest obstacles to the self-emancipation of the international proletariat, but have discovered that Prussia is not the only soil for the congenial growth of noxious plants.
They oppose replacing Prussian militarism by Russian, French or English militarism."

M. Litvinoff declared his emphatic belief that by the present negotiations and propaganda among the German soldiers in the east, Trotsky and Le-nine are contributing to the downfall of kaiserism more effectively than the allies fighting in the west. He concluded:

LOCAL FIGHTING ON CAMBRAI FRONT

British Advance Line South of Lens During Night—Some Artillery Activity.

London, Jan. 4.—"Local fighting took place yesterday afternoon on the Cambrai front, in the neighborhood of the Canal Du Nord, without producing any material change in the situation," the war office reports.
"We advanced our line slightly during the night south of Lens."
"There was some hostile artillery activity during the night in the Belcourt sector and also in the Ypres sector."

COMMENDED FOR HEROIC CONDUCT

Washington, Jan. 4.—Secretary Daniels has commended Ensign George C. Etheredge and seven men, Lieut.
Daniel E. Barbey, of the U. S. S.
Annapolis, and Chief Boatswain's Mate Fred Zastro, of the U. S. S.
Ozark, for gallantry in the rescue of the crew of the steamship Paddelford on Oct. 30, when that vessel went ashore in a heavy surf at an unnamed point.
Lieut. Barbey and Chief Boatswain's Mate Strickland and Williams, of the Annapolis, carried a lifeline to the wrecked vessel through the breakers, making it possible to get two-thirds of the Paddelford's crew in safety, while Ensign Etheredge and the reminder of the men of the Annapolis who were mentioned, with Zastro, of the Ozark, took a lifeboat to the wreck and saved the rest of the Paddelford's crew.
Ensign Etheredge is from Saluda, S. C.; Chief Boatswain's Mate John C. Strickland comes from El Paso, Tex., and Chief Boatswain's Mate Ry-son Williams from Sulphur Springs, Tex.

MILITARY FUNERALS FOR AIR RAID VICTIMS

London, Dec. 1.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Persons killed in air raids can have a military funeral if their relatives so desire. In making this announcement the war office says that arrangements may be made for the attendance of troops, with a band if one is available, and for the loan of a Union Jack to cover the coffin.

ENEMY DELEGATION DIVIDED BY REAL OR PRETENDED DIFFERENCES

Annexionist View Supported at Brest-Litovsk by Military Leader—Von Kuehlmann and Czernin Uphold More Moderate Terms Throughout Sessions.

London, Jan. 4.—There were two distinct tendencies noticeable in the enemy delegation at the Brest-Litovsk meetings, the Petrograd correspondent of the Daily News says. One was an-nexionist and was represented by Gen. Von Hoffman. A more moderate view was upheld by Foreign Secretaries Von Kuehlmann and Czernin.
There were frequent disputes between the two tendencies. These were settled, it is added, by appeals to Berlin, which always supported Von Kuehlmann and Czernin. Gen. Von Hoffmann took the purely military point of view and complained with great bitterness that the Russians were using the armistice to agitate among German soldiers.

According to the correspondent, there is a belief among the Russian delegation that Germany will yield to the Russian demands concerning Poland and Lithuania, so as not to lose the advantage she gains by seeming to agree with Russia while the entire allies disagree.

In support of Stockholm, The reasons for wishing the negotiations to be continued at Stockholm are a desire for a greater publicity and this idea is expressed in a bolshevik statement:

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN BARRED ZONE

New York Asked to Help Fight Flames Threatening Hoboken Water Front.

Hoboken, N. J., Jan. 4.—Fire, which threatened part of the water front, which is within government control, broke out today. The blaze was discovered in a six-story building occupied by the Gatti-McQuade company, mill supplies manufacturers, in the barred zone. That structure seemed doomed.

All the fire apparatus in Hoboken was called out to prevent spread of the flames to the Hudson river piers and a nearby munitions factory. Several ambulances also were summoned.
Two hours after the fire started the flames continued to make headway.
They had spread to a number of other structures and civilians were called upon to aid the firemen. More details of soldiers were summoned. Owing to the cold weather the water pressure was poor.

Tenants Ordered to Move.
The police ordered all the tenants in buildings in the vicinity to move out.
Paper stock estimated to be worth $100,000 was destroyed in the Gatti-McQuade building.
A number of firemen were overcome by smoke and the intense cold and removed to hospitals. Every ambulance in Hoboken was summoned to the scene.

ALIEN CITIZENSHIP CLAIM WON'T WORK

Washington, Jan. 4.—The war department will oppose every effort of any person to claim citizenship on the basis of a claim won't work.

Any Sickness Leaves Weakness

Even a simple cold strips and reduces your resistive powers to allow other sickness. Only food—not alcohol or drugs—creates the rich blood which distributes strength to the body, and the concentrated medicinal food in SOUTH SHIVERS FROM COLD WAVE

January Record for Low Temperatures Smashed in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 4.—Smashing all January records, the temperature in Richmond dropped to 1 degree below zero this morning. This was the second occurrence of below zero temperature here during the last week.
Sunday morning it was 2.2 below. Several local schools were closed yesterday and today on account of fuel shortage.

COLDEST SINCE SUNDAY.

Philadelphia, Jan. 4.—It is colder today than at any time since Sunday, the thermometer early in the morning touching the zero mark. Reports from surrounding towns show temperatures as low as 14 degrees below.

Early today firemen battled three hours in the frigid atmosphere to save 2,000 tons of coal from a burning barge. They succeeded, but the barge was destroyed.

NOT QUITE SO COLD.
Washington, Jan. 4.—"Not quite so cold tonight and warmer Saturday," was today forecast by the weather bureau for much of the cold-stricken eastern half of the United States.
Temperatures will rise slowly in interior districts and the Atlantic coast states.

The storm off the coast has moved northward to the vicinity of Nova Scotia with greatly increased intensity and caused gales along the coast.

UNIONS WILL AFFILIATE IN PUBLIC SERVICE

Washington, Jan. 4.—Union affiliated with the American Federation of Labor have agreed to co-operate with the plan of the United States public service reserve for voluntary assignment of labor forces of the country into jobs where the government most needs them.
This was announced in a statement issued by the department of labor today which said that thousands of skilled workmen already had enrolled in the reserve and trade unions had begun to urge their members to do like wise to demonstrate that conscription of labor would be unnecessary.

DORIS KEANE AND BASIL SYDNEY WED

London, Jan. 4.—Doris Keane, the American actress, the Daily Mirror announces, was married yesterday to Basil Sydney, an English actor. They had been appearing together in London in "Romance."

POSTAL EMPLOYEES GIRL MESSENGERS AT MOBILE

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 4.—The Postal Telegraph company today employed girls as messengers, and they say that they like the work. Boys are leaving their employment to work in the government plants at higher wages.
